

Artus – Marble Table Light

A fine birch dowel cage contains its blown-glass bulb within. Daring yet delicate, the Artus Lighting Range diffracts a mesmerising pattern of shadows, dramatising your space.

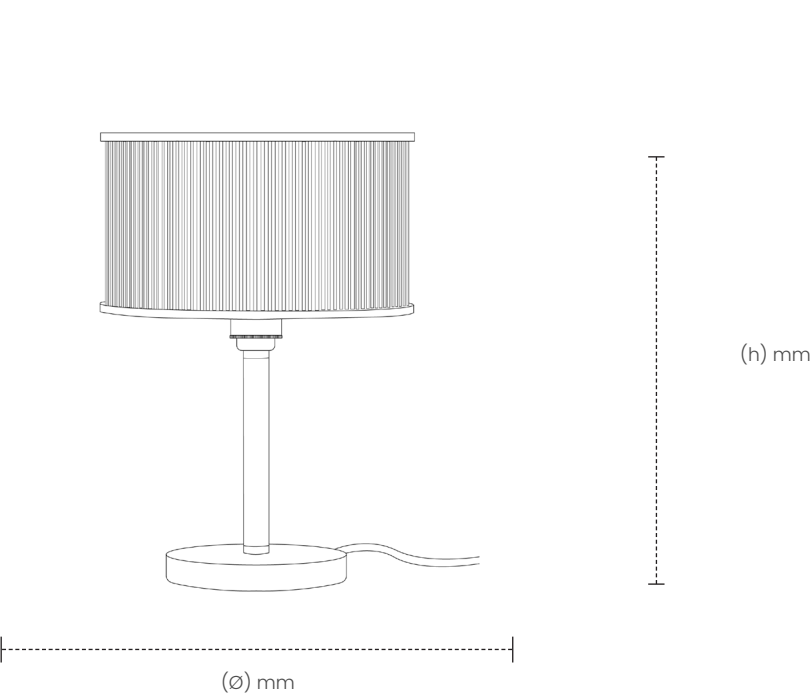

Ethereal dowels are slotted into a complex birch drum shade frame that shrouds an exposed filament bulb. Intricately placed, each illuminated pillar distributes kaleidoscopic, vertical shadows that delights the eye of the beholder. Placed upon a marble lamp base with a wooden pole handcrafted from traditional oak, the Artus Marble Table Light makes elegant impact, standing tall with a small footprint, ideal for easily moving from bedroom to living space.

Illuminate. Pack a punch. Draw the eye.
