

Skipper – Marble Table Light

Undulating timber petals navigate over and around. Where simple, honest design meets our signature curves, the Skipper Lighting Range leads the charge.

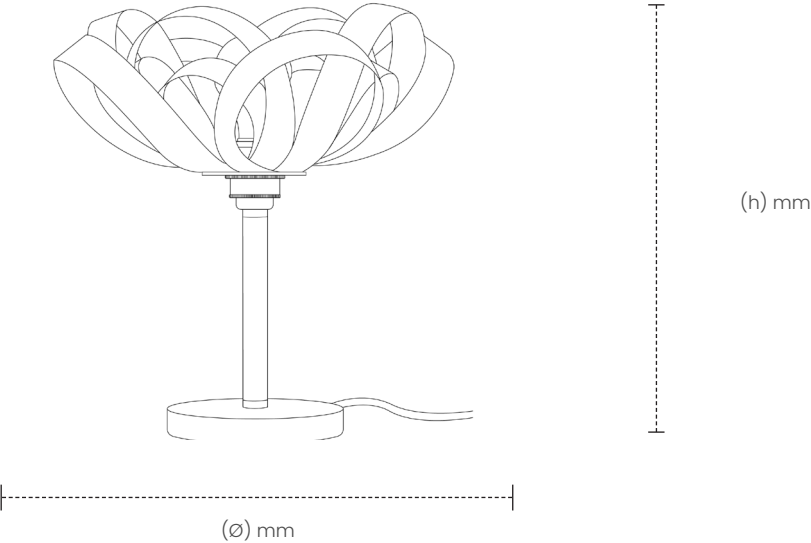

Scandinavian design principles and our sought-after aesthetic, merged. Formed from sustainably sourced ash, oak or walnut wood, each Skipper Marble Table Light is individually handcrafted by our skilled workshop team using a dry construction method to last over a lifetime. Casting light up and out from its intricate wooden silhouette, the Skipper shade sits upon a marble lamp base with a pole handcrafted from traditional oak, producing bright light and bold, contrasting shadows.

Achieve impact with a lighter touch. Embrace simplicity. Make a statement in your space.
